Nondiscrimination in Services

TO: Parents

FROM: Connie DiRenzo

Admissions, the provisions of services, and referrals of clients shall be made without regard to race, color, religion, creed, disability, ancestry, national origin (including limited English proficiency) age or sex.

Program services shall be made accessible to eligible persons with disabilities through the most practical and economically usable method available. These methods include but are not limited to equipment redesigns, the provisions of aides, and the use of alternative service delivery locations. Structural modification shall be considered only as a last resort among available methods.

Any individual/client/student (and/or their guardian), who believes they have been discriminated against, may file a complaint of discrimination with any of the following.
